

As it is now, we must look for unbiased news in markets outside the USA. Corporate control of the media does NOT serve the interests of the American people. I strongly urge the FCC to continue to prohibit cross-ownership in media markets and to actively restrain those who are currently in defiance of the law.